COOPERATION VS. FRAGMENTATION

JEFFREY FURSU

It has long been noted by many who observe such matters as the cycles of mankind in relation to astrological ages that the Age of Pisces, now ending, was an age of the individual - great leaders, great nations - great explorations, discoveries and developments, by individuals and individual nations. Pisces, a water sign, was an era of expanding travel over water routes and of harnessing the energy and power inherent to water and steam.

Now a new era is upon us - Aquarius as "The Water Bearer" builds upon and utilizes that which went before - but Aquarius is an air sign and a New Age Consciousness is arising in mankind. Air and electricity have provided us with new and extremely faster methods of movement, exploration and communications inherent to the Aquarian concepts of air space flight and atomic power.

However where Pisces was the Age of the Individual, Aquarius is noted as an age of group involvement in all that previously was delegated or grasped by individual leaders and nations be they benevolently or tyrannically inclined. One does not need to look far afield to see those with the old Piscean tendencies making violent efforts to hold on to the old ways of social, political, economics and racial determinism. Much as the children of Israel reverted to worshipping the golden calf. (Symbol of the Taurean Age) when Moses had called for them to look forward to the freedom symbolized by Aries and the Passover lamb or ram, all ages have had their reactionary tendencies among individuals, groups and nations. The New Age, or Aquarian Age, however we care to regard it, is not about to be accepted by the earth and its inhabitants without violent upheavals - many of which are painfully evident as we view recent decades in the affairs of men and nations.

The choice of individual group cooperation versus fragmentation determination should be brought into a clear focus, with great emphasis and clarity, in regard to the obvious outcomes should the old ways of men still be pursued to their logical conclusions. (Nuclear determination proliferation is one very ominous area for consideration.)

The individualism, fragmentation and non-cooperation inherent to the Old Age at its worst can only continue to foster chaos, ill-will, violence, dislocation and destruction with no constructive alternatives considered in the process. The era of power and might being right and dog-eat dog is having its last say in the earth and presently the question of whether humanity and the so called civilized areas of societies will survive all the earth's amassed destructive potentials over the next few decades is very problematical. Even with total cooperation continuing among men and nations during the next two or three decades the problems that exist would not simply disappear. As matters stand individual group cooperation is the only solution to any or all ailments of society.

So it is with many of us who are working as harbingers of the New Age and all the positive values that New Age Consciousness has in store as its potential. However a New Age is not something that just happens. It has to be made to happen in the affairs and consciousness of those who are prepared to live it. Over the past centuries even the great unified religion's message of Krishna, Moses, Buddha, Christ and Mohammed has been persistently perverted, fragmented and used as a tool of separation by those who serve themselves and their cults to the exclusion of others. The message was and is - God is One and We are One. - and until we live it with our fellow men - be they in other skins or other nations or other churches (or other psychic awareness groups even) we will remain fragmented, lost from our Oneness, and teetering on Chaos, destruction and aloneness.

" HOW TO FIND THE RIGHT SPIRITUAL PATH "

by Rev. Kingdon L. Brown

Desert Shadows Church

Essential Science Leadership Training Center

"Which Spiritual Path should I follow?" the letter began.

And, it is one of the most frequently asked questions I get. Often this question is posed after a person has had a disillusioning experience. Some join an organization which promises much but which gives very little. Others, skipping from group to group, wonder why their philosophy of life just doesn't quite seem to be enough. The trick, of course, is to avoid these pitfalls by evaluating an organization, and its fruitage, ahead of time. But, what are the valid tests, the "tip offs" that something might be "wrong" under the surface? Or, "right?"

Not Everyone Needs The Same Thing

If you accept the concept that we all grow, continuously, through life, then it is easy to see that what makes one person happy, fulfilled, and harmonious may not suit another. The first rule, then, in my opinion, in trying to sort out the various claims of spiritual development plans, lessons, or groups, is to avoid the exaggerated claim that any group has an "exclusive" on the Truth...or that it is the only real way to enlightenment.

What may be perfect for you today may be only partially satisfying tomorrow. But, don't blame your organization for this one. If you are growing, changing, and moving through the cycles of your life, you may have simply outgrown a point of view. Most organizations have a very few simple ideas which they explain over and over. It can get rather tiresome. And, you may have gotten the message, and applied it. Time to go on, if you have. And, any real spiritual leader worth his own salt will let you go with Blessings and GOOD FEELINGS.

We Are Not Always The Best Judge Of What We Need

This may seem strange at first glance. But, I have seen more people fail at applying the Truth of a spiritual system and then blame the system for their own messed-up life! The lesson here is that the full awakening of spiritual abilities only takes place as we discipline ourselves and follow a very narrow path of dedication to something higher than self gratification. Fulfillment comes, of course, But, it is not the right motive to begin the spiritual quest. We have to let go of that old ego identity to grasp something beyond us.

We all want the Good Life. And, we should be able to live it! But, to move from where we were in our thinking and responses and experiences, to where we should be--to live the Good Life--means that we have to be willing to accept the need for self change. Call it increased awareness, expanded consciousness, or greater receptivity. It all amounts to shedding the old ideas, false dependencies, and excuses.

If we aren't really willing to change, then there isn't much point in going through the motions of attending meetings, conferences, or reading books, or subscribing to lessons. Self-analysis requires a willingness to understand our weaknesses, and then to be able to go beyond them to our full spiritual potential..WHICH IS OUR BIRTHRIGHT.

13 == == == == OUR DESTINY NUMBER

The material world is a vast and complicated system of vibrations. Identifying particular vibrations or factors which influence us individually or as a group can have real value. With understanding, we can begin to work with these influences.

The number 13 reverberates through the history and symbolism of America more times than can be considered accidental, beginning with Revolutionary days. There were the thirteen original colonies, of course, and the related use of the number in the Great Seal, the national flag, and on our currency. It is not surprising that on the Seal are thirteen feathers in each wing of the eagle, thirteen arrows in its' claw, thirteen leaves and thirteen berries in the olive branch. There are thirteen stripes on the shield, thirteen stars in the circle of glory, and thirteen letters in E PLURIBUS UNUM as well. On the reverse side, there are thirteen steps in the pyramid and thirteen letters in the motto ANNUIT COEPTIS. The Mace in the House of Representatives also has thirteen rods. There are thirteen signatures to the Declaration of Independence.

There are repetitions of the number 13 which are less explainable. In 1884, the official version of the Great Seal was drawn by James Horton Whitehouse, the thirteenth person responsible for its formulation. There were thirteen ships in our first navy. George Washington and twelve of his generals were Freemasons. The designation '76 which is commonly used to refer to the year of the Declaration of Independence adds up to thirteen. JULY THE FOURTH has thirteen letters. So does THE AMERICAN EAGLE, the name of the national bird. Also, AN APPEAL TO GOD and DON'T TREAD ON ME, mottos on the Massachusetts Revolutionary Flag each have thirteen letters. In numerology, IN GOD WE TRUST adds up to 58, which reduces to a 13. In the Kabbala, the "code book of cosmic law," the numerical value of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA is 247, which reduces to 13.

In later years, the number 13 continued to make an appearance. Significantly, there were eleven states in the Confederacy, but the Confederate Flag carried thirteen stars. In World War I, the first expedition to France sailed on June 13, 1917 with thirteen ships taking thirteen days to cross. The general of the Expeditionary Forces was John J. Pershing (thirteen letters). During that same period, the President signed his name Woodrow Wilson (again, thirteen letters). Consider also the repetition of the number 4, which is a reduction of 13 (one and three added together). There are also a number of interesting multiples of thirteen.

13X13 CYCLE Some scholars believe that thirteen cycles or time periods of thirteen years each (13X13) is especially significant. Begin with the year that the Declaration was signed, 1776. Continue on until 1932, the first year of the last thirteen year period, which Paul Foster Case corresponds to the uppermost course of the unfinished pyramid. Franklin Roosevelt was elected to office in the first year of that thirteenth cycle. He was the thirteenth President to serve a multiple term. At his first inaugural and his subsequent three, he took the oath of office with his hand on the thirteenth chapter of 1st Corinthians, a chapter which contains just thirteen verses. The years between 1932 and 1945 (the last thirteen-year cycle) were of great significance in U. S. and world history.

MEANING OF THIRTEEN In Tarot, the thirteenth Arcana card is that of regeneration or rebirth. It signifies a new cycle, a transformation by plowing under that which is no longer useful or fruitful. It is the death of the old that the new may be reborn. It imposes on us transformation first of our own consciousness, and then of the world around us. Transformation is usually considered a hardship and death a misfortune, which is probably a basis for the number 13 being considered as unlucky.

Thirteen also represents the combination of 12 plus 1, which is the totality of all the attributes and qualities of the twelve. The twelve signs of the Zodiac revolve around a central sun in the Pleiades. The brotherhoods of the Mystery Schools are composed of twelve, who gather around the leader who is the thirteenth. The thirteenth in turn is a member of a more exalted hierarchy of twelve which gather around a leader. As the thirteenth, the leader has completed the cycle of the magic twelve and entered upon a new and higher cycle of attainment. The thirteenth is at the end of one cycle and the beginning of another.

THE THIRTEENTH RACE According to occult science, the evolution of man can be divided into sixteen races from the beginning until the end of time. The Anglo-Saxon-Teutonic race that America belongs to is classified as the thirteenth race.

The first Great Race was the Lemurian, which ran its course millions of years ago. The second Great Race was the Atlantean, which extended several million years more. The Atlantean race was classified into seven separate races, which together with the Lemurian makes a total of eight races. Then came the Aryan race, which was also classified into seven distinct races. The Anglo-Saxon race to which we belong is the fifth of the seven Aryan races. Thus America springs from the thirteenth race (1 Lemurian, plus 7 Atlantean, plus 5th of the Aryan).

It is interesting to note that the fifth Atlantean race, not the seventh or last, gave birth to the next Great Race. By the Law of Correspondence, it will be the fifth Aryan race (America), also, that will bring forth the next and last Great Race. It will be a universal race, the sixteenth in racial evolution. Reunification will have occurred, and there will be one race once more.

THE THIRTEEN BROTHERS The thirteen original colonies in the New World correspond to the number of the Brotherhood which assumed responsibility for the founding of America. Each of the brothers planted a colony. The brothers each have a distinctive ray and note, while at the same time merge into a collective white radiance and sound a single harmonic chord. In like manner, the nation the brothers founded will maintain distinct states while functioning as a Union.

AMERICA'S DESTINY Thirteen is the number and vibration which is swinging us into a new and enlarged orbit of expression. It is the number of regeneration and rebirth. The thirteenth is the number of the leader. It is the one, and the sum total of all its disciples. It is the end of one cycle and the beginning of another. It is the number which will remain with us throughout our nation's life cycle. It is our nation's destiny for years to come.

PLANETARY CONSCIOUSNESS & SIGNS OF THE NEW AGE

PLANETARY CONSCIOUSNESS The human race has a collective consciousness, and we are part of the whole planet's consciousness. Things don't happen by chance. There is a design, an evolution. My idea is that evolution of the human species as individuals has more or less come to a halt. Now we are involved in a group consciousness.

The planet's consciousness is evolving, and we are doing this through collectivizing consciousness by groups. Together we can manifest the new age that many people are talking about as being the next turn on the spiral.

What can people do to express their New Age being, to be part of the evolvment? Develop their own individual capabilities as high as they can. By capabilities, I mean potentials, not necessarily psychic abilities, which are only one of many attributes. If each of us manifests as best we can through our own individuality, our own coming up to par to the best we can do, then this will benefit society as we link together. Each of us becomes a stronger and stronger link. Therefore the chain becomes stronger.

GURUS Now this is somewhat different from the view that is held in the East. There, one looks towards a Guru or a living God as the inspirational founthead of knowledge and really follows that one person and gives strength to him. I don't feel that that really works out too well, which might account for the terrible straits that India is in now. Here in the West, we have the idea that each person develops individually and then interacts with others to combine in a stronger way. But now there is a meeting between the East and the West, particularly here on the West Coast, which I think is very healthy. From the East, we are discovering the inner ways of enlightenment, yet we are holding on to our Western social activity. And we are putting it to use. But with the idea of action, not just sitting there passively waiting for nirvana or samadhi (going off to the mountains). If one wants samadhi, death is samadhi, I suppose, but it really doesn't help the rest of society.

I do know that the spiritual community in India is upset about the Gurus here. In India, they are held in low repute. But perhaps in America the message is new. It is novel. It is good to get new ideas.

THE NEW AGE Only in looking back will we be able to pinpoint the time frame for the New Age. It will be gradual. But the forerunner or forewave of it is next year, 1976. It probably will not really catch hold on a strong basis until after the turn of the century. It is a complete shifting of society's values.

This period we are coming into is similar to the days of the ancient Greeks who were very sophisticated in the sciences and philosophy. They had most of the scientific principles that we have today. And strangely, people lost interest in science as being the highest good. Instead, they began pursuing the knowledge of self as the highest good. They turned away from science, and they turned towards themselves. Religion came in very strongly at this point, in fact too far. It brought the culture into Feudalism. We are a little more balanced at this junction of the 21st Century.

There is now a meeting of science and the inner self, so I think there will be a greater balance. The analogy I like to use is the two hemispheres of the brain. The dominant hemisphere is the logical, the rational one. The other is the inspirational, the feeling one, the artist. Our culture right now favors the dominant rational side almost to the total exclusion of the other. But now the intuitive, inspirational side is coming up also, and the two aspects are coming into balance.

In the Eastern countries, they are also achieving balance. Among the educational classes in Asia, science and technology are the 'in' things. And they are completely down on swamis, gurus, or clairvoyants and psychics. They think that is just superstition. So on the one hand you have the great masses of people believing and using the intuitive and the religious aspects, while the educated minority looks down on that. I think it would be a healthy balance if we could just get them together.

WARRING NATIONS I think the Aquarian Age will be born of agony. We have been going through a bit of that. And I don't think we are through with wars yet. But it is a necessary thing perhaps for our understanding. It is not that many years in the future when we will become so disgusted with wars that the world as a whole will turn from bloodshed and destruction towards spiritual values.

CALIFORNIA DOOMSDAY I did five years of research on that and read and looked through at least 2000 books. Also, I talked to a great many people in the United States and England. The prophecies of California falling into the sea are a misinterpretation of prophecies that began around the turn of the century. Much later, they were popularized by writers of Edgar Cayce. I don't hold them to be of much literal validity, but there might be a symbolic validity, however.

PRAYER GROUPS TRYING TO CHANGE EVENTS It worries me that they never concentrate on anything close to home. I recall one group of meditators who were nowhere near New York City, and they were meditating to calm the situation in Harlem, in New York City. I suggested that they work on something that they had some connection with.

SPACECRAFT TO SAVE A CHOSEN FEW I guess this idea goes back to at least the ark. Prophecies have turned out to be wrong time and time again. Dates have been given for the end of the world or great destruction or when spacecraft are going to come. And people wait out in their back yards. And it never happens.

But I do have a feeling about something coming from outer space, which I think will manifest in 1976. As I saw it, it was red, an enormous sphere. There will be something happening next year which will have terrific religious implications.

I think that it will have something of the impact of the Fatima miracle in 1917 where a UFO (unidentified flying object) appeared in Portugal as predicted and was seen by 50,000 people. They could see it whirling around. They said it was the sun, but it was a very cloudy day. A picture of it was also published in PSYCHIC magazine. It was a UFO, but it was interpreted religiously. This will have terrific religious implications. I think the sphere will be from another dimension.

It will foreshadow a change in consciousness. There will be something of a

ARE WE ALONE?

KIT KENTHAN

Whether or not there is intelligent life on neighboring planets in our solar system or possibly planets in other solar systems is a premise imposing some very intriguing questions. One thing we can be certain of is the vast amount of interest by intelligent life here on Earth in regards to this highly controversial hypothesis.

In this greatly advanced technical age of Flying missiles, Flying rumors and Flying Saucers, Science Fiction runs a winning race daily in its efforts to become Science Fact. Everyone, everywhere, whether they be pathetically ignorant or highly educated has looked up at the brilliantly lit, star-studded Heavens at night and pondered these questions: Is our little world unique? Could there possibly be life out there on another world? Are those UFO'S for real or are we actually alone in this vast Universe?

The pro's and con's are countless, with most of the Pro's keeping up with the latest discoveries and bulletins as they turn their eyes ever upwards, in the event a UFO should streak across the sky. As for the Con's, most of them are in uniform, Air Force Blue and decorated in brass. Its their job and has actually been their 'theme song' to inform the citizens that Flying Saucers are a hoax, mostly explainable natural phenomena. Well, perchance some day this well known 'theme song' just might end up being their 'swan song'.

One should never approach a contentious topic such as this one with a closed mind. A great many papers and books have been written on this fascinating subject. Some have been written by eccentrics who go into decorative detail on their elaborate fantasies about a Flying Saucer, piloted by tiny green men with big red antennae sprouting out of their craniums. However, there have also been books written by men of authority and men who write with clarity, who thoughtfully and methodically research; men capable of writing on such a highly provocative subject. Mr. Walter Sullivan, once the Science Editor of the New York Times, a most conservative newspaper, is such a man and he wrote a classic titled, "We Are Not Alone".

Why not Flying Saucers or UFO's? Why not ancient civilizations existing in nearby or perhaps not so nearby interplanetary systems? Why not visitors to Earth from other worlds? Why are we so dogmatically convinced so as to emphatically state, "We are alone in this Universe." Out of the billions, even quadrillions of worlds out there we believe life exists on only one, this tiny speck called Earth!

Dr. Werner Von Braun, the noted space scientist, has openly and publicly made the statement that it is very likely that out of those billion and quadrillion of worlds, it is quite likely that life exists in abundance on many of them out in the Universe. In his opinion, it is entirely logical assumption. Many other great researchers and historians concede that the history of our earth and its inhabitants was old when our biblical history began. They claim that regardless of our understanding, or lack of it, spacecraft have moved through our atmosphere now and then through centuries. Many sightings of these craft have been recorded through the centuries, both by scientists and the man on the street. An informative and most interesting example of these records are the celebrated BOOKS OF CHARLES FORT.

All too often recent attempts to achieve genuine cooperation, communication and community among new groups devoted to psychic spiritual awareness have resulted in Worship of the Golden Calf reactions rather than the open acceptance and interest in finding common ground or understanding that our brothers and sisters must have in order to survive, individually and among selective groups in the all too troubled times that lay ahead. The question of cooperation versus fragmentation will always be with us. How we handle it in collective consciousness will determine directly the world that will be left for us and our own to live in - or merely to exist/survive in.

From "Philosophy of the Nine"
(URI by Andrija Puharich, p. 128)

"Remember . . . God is nobody else than we together, the Nine Principles of God. There is no God other than what we are together."

As We Grow Our Concept of Pure Truth Changes

Probably the greatest deception is the idea that "we know all we need to know." The test is that once we comprehend a truth it must be applied under all circumstances, within all relationships and experiences. If the only eternal reality is God...if God is within us...and if God's Creation is GOOD...then it follows that using this Truth will lead to its manifestation and demonstration in concrete terms. But, what if life rolls on in an endless series of discords?

A Change in Life-Style May Be the Final Application of Pure Truth

The real illumination comes when we find ourselves evaluating our goals, objectives, and methods of living. When we look to our priorities--the more important things are separated from the less significant--and the demonstrations of Truth are self-evident. From mortal mindedness we move to the Universal Mind of Spirit. From self-centered interests we look to a community of interest. Instead of taking, absorbing, and observing we learn to give, create, participate. We may have to give up the need for personal recognition and the social aspects of the spiritual life. Many simply choose seclusion, quiet time, and combine meditation, study, reading, and reflecting as the real keys.

Common sense is the quality to appeal to here. In the final shake we all come to terms with the cosmic scheme for evolution of humanity... And, our place in that evolutionary process.

The New Age of Spiritual Enlightenment is here. And, many individuals who are being Directed by the Inward Power of Divinity are mutating in order to accept leadership. Leaving materialism behind, they reach for the highest aspirations of love and harmony. These are projected into the world of human affairs as thought creations which eventually emerge through spiritual telepathy as the Christ Consciousness.

Avoid Material Manipulation

While we are examples of the Light of Divinity we also resist the temptation to convince those who are not ready for the Higher Life. We cannot ignore the needs of life. The material world does have its place. We do not renounce the world; but, we do proclaim the Good of God's Creation.

We detach from the false, the destructive, the violent and phony. In short we decide how we will cooperate with the antagonistic aspects of earth life and we selectively disengage from that which is not Good. We cannot offer blind obedience to a system of thought which may be wrong when tested against absolute Truth. What is happening is of importance, of course, but how we respond to the world is the key to soul awareness and liberation within the Divine Plan.

If we are negative, fearful, or self defeating, we are acted upon. When we are optimistic, creative, and open to life's energies we can initiate our own thoughts and future circumstances. Mastership of life, under the protection of our Cosmic Guardians, means that we have a full philosophy of living which Demonstrates itself by how we think, what we do, and how we respond.

Find The Path That Frees You

Spiritual Wisdom brings the gift of freedom...freedom from desire... freedom from fragmented living and thinking...freedom to love, to enjoy life and to appreciate the natural balances. A Path which unites you with other souls who are evolving into higher states of being and consciousness brings unity and inward peace.

Mankind is being prepared for the New Age of Spiritual Enlightenment. Those who have integrated their spiritual energy are being prepared for the changes. Even at this moment they are gaining, through cosmic attunement, the Guidance from the Hierarchy.

Those souls who are transmitting fear, negation, frustration, violence, and mistrust will be left with the Karmic lesson of their actions. They are being left behind in the old consciousness of greed, manipulation, and limitation.

On every side we see the differences between the attuned and the individuals trapped in the darkness of their own confusion. It is not too late to join the Light Bearers, the seekers of Eternal Truth and Divine Direction. Now is the time to attune to the Highest Spheres of existence and listen to the True Voice of the Aquarian Prophecy and Revelation

The U. S. Air Force and Dept. of Defense do not actually deny the possibility that life could exist on some other planet. They merely state that to their knowledge there is not sufficient evidence to substantiate the sensational claims made by the U.F.O. clubs and groups or individuals that Flying Saucers are space ships under intelligent control. A well-guarded statement, wouldn't you say?

Most of these groups and individuals state that the Air Force is withholding vital information from the general public. Could very well be. We all have a great fear of the Unknown. Others are afraid because of fear of ridicule or persecution. Still, the UFO sightings are reported with ever-increasing frequency, and the claims are still made that the Air Force is very much aware of the space ships from other worlds visiting our atmosphere: that we are under continual surveillance by intelligent beings from another planet. Spine tingling, isn't it? You have to admit that it makes for good reading and is scintillating material for speculation. Also makes one ponder what sort of religious and philosophical problems we will have to face up to.

The Thinkers of the world, the Questioners, those who are aware, who are alert and who keep their minds wide open, know that we are on the very threshold of contact with other civilizations and even the most learned and cautious of men have begun to contemplate the possible effect of superior beings who could very well indeed shake the foundations of our religion, philosophy, and our entire society.

Why not, one might ask, intelligent visitors to Earth from another world? Why not ancient but exceptional superior civilizations existing in nearby planetary space? Why not indeed?

Well, whether there is intelligent life on Mars, Venus or some distant star way out there still remains to be proven. There is certainly a vast amount of interest by intelligent life here on the planet Earth on this highly provocative subject. With the strides being made today in space travel by this intelligent life on the planet Earth, we're bound to find the answer sooner or later, if we can just keep our antennae in working order and tuned in to the right frequency. Perhaps then we shall all understand better what Shakespeare meant when he said, "There are more things in Heaven and Earth, than are dreamt of in your philosophy, Horatio." Methinketh there certainly are, Horatio, and so do a lot of other people.

So, let's stretch those minds and keep them open, wide open. Let's service that antennae regularly and hope that on the memorable occasion of the first Astronaut meeting up with another being from some world out in space, the greeting will be:

"Hello, Earthman. Put away your Ray Gun and dismantle your missiles, for you are among friends. We are your Brethren."

Your Bogota Convention Itinerary

IT5AR10416

October 7 LOS ANGELES-BOGOTA Check in at Los Angeles International Airport late evening for an after midnight departure on Argentine Air Lines jetliner for Colombia.

October 8 BOGOTA Arrive at noon, then transfer to the HOTEL PRESIDENTE. This afternoon we will take you on an orientation tour of this great city, surrounded by the Andes, a mixture of old and new, offering much to the visitor.

October 9 thru October 15 BOGOTA — INTERNATIONAL YOGA CONVENTION During the next 7 days you will be part of the International Convention. Registration fee of $6 not included.

The purpose of the Convention will be to inform all interested persons about the most diverse and complex techniques of the sciences of Tantra and Yoga, which until now have been kept hidden from most men and considered as secret teachings. The Convention will be a gathering of the most eminent spiritual masters and the most assiduous practitioners and yogic aspirant, who will share their experiences and knowledge with other spiritual leaders, psychologists, and known scientists.

Many Yogis will come from their ashrams in remote places of India, including the Himalayas. During the Convention they will explain the practices that they have followed each according to his chosen path — in order to attain their present levels of perfection. For example, there will be daily sessions for the demonstration of Hatha Yoga as performed by advanced practitioners. In this way, the delegates of the Convention will have the opportunity to learn about the various pathways that one may follow in Yoga in order to reach a high level of personal development. In this, each person can then choose whichever one best suits his own tendencies and aptitudes.

This great occasion, during which Latin America will be the depository of the great wisdom of the Tantric and Yogic cultures, will reaffirm the beginning of the Age of Yoga and reinforce our motto:

"YOGA IS THE CULTURE OF TOMORROW"

October 16 BOGOTA-LOS ANGELES Today you will be escorted back to the airport for your return jetflight on Argentine Air Lines to California, at the conclusion of an unforgettable experience.

"I See For You"

Louis "looks" again ----- 20 years ago, Louis (Mystic, of the Louis Foundation on Orcas Island, Washington) graciously answered people's questions in a small publication from Oklahoma, his column was called "I See For You", that activity lapsed after a few years, and many people across the country have sorely missed the spiritual insights that came through Louis' answers to personal questions of all kinds. His comments had both delightful wit and food for thought of information

Here is a book as complex and individual as you are. It's not light reading because it's your life, your astral biography, from the details of your inner feelings to your outermost ambitions.

Sun-Moon polarity, as the connection between conscious drives and unconscious feelings, is discussed at great length.

The ascending sign and its rulership position is interpreted as your personality, as your approach to life. Each house of the zodiac is described in terms of planets, rulerships and aspects.

This is not a vague report based on generalities. From your exact time, day, year and place of birth our IBM 370-155 sorts out 24,000,000 bits of astrological information. The result is a 12,000 word personal biography revealing secrets that even your closest friends would not dare talk about.

How is this possible? An astrologer does basically the same thing, but it takes longer and costs more. The computer is simply a memory bank. Only the information that applies to you and only you is drawn from the bank.

All this is yours for only $10. It's the best buy there is in computerized horoscopes. Plus a money back guarantee if your Astral Portrait isn't what you expected.

Think of it as a reference book, to be studied from time to time. We've got the best available, anywhere, at anytime... and at any price.

Remembering

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A MYSTIC

By Earlyne Chaney

REMEMBERING is . . . a story of life after death . . . and love beyond death . . . the story of a quest for a love from a past life whose eyes haunted her dreams . . . of contact with a Great Being from the Other Side whose influence brought illumination to one in search of Light . . .

A driving force has always impelled Earlyne's life onward -- first to seek through Baptist revival meetings, then to allow excellence in herself to show through, striving for financial security, on to Hollywood and career and romance, finally to meeting Robert Chaney and discovering spiritual enlightenment.

Born the fourth of five children, Earlyne learned to seek out her own resources at an early age. An introspective child, Earlyne had a series of soul-stirring events which guided her through frustrating early religious experiences, teen romance, and the death of the first of several loved ones that would awaken her to life. And always, there was the strange, restless longing for something she referred to as the Call.

The Presence that had come to be a part of her teens withdrew after her high school years, and she plunged into normal adulthood. Earlyne left home with a sister, labeled boxes in a warehouse, taught dancing, struggled to attend secretarial school, always working toward reaching Hollywood. California brought her romance, the death of another loved one, and an inner search which led to her spiritual destiny.

This is the story of Earlyne's frivolous and serious years. She is candid and revealing in her retrospection. The pages of her story are punctuated by her poetry. In the final chapters, Earlyne details the principles of Llama Yoga, Cosmo Meditation, and pranayama (controlled breathing), which were her vehicles to higher consciousness.

renaissance in America, as far as our own way of looking at ourselves. America is at a low right now. I think it is a good thing. It is about time we faced a few realities and realized we can't build a nation on the grubby politics and money power-plays which have been the fashion. People are going to seek a more spiritual base of life. The forewave will be very strong next year.

RELIGION There will be a neo-Christian religion coming in and very strongly around the turn of the century. It is quite possible that the Catholic faith might be subsumed within it. It will be a much more general, much more broad religion. Will there be a universal religion? No, the world has never had that. There are always several, but we will be closer to one world religion than we have ever known before. As to religions today, Communism would be the one held by more people than any other, especially considering Red China. Next Buddhism. Then the Moslem religion. Then Christianity. Those extensions will start to melt away, particularly if there is an influence from outer space which will somehow unite us.

A SECOND COMING Not literally, but figuratively. We draw on archetypal personalities from the past. There will be coming a time where Christ consciousness will be the operative archetype. That pattern will become most active, and in essence it will manifest through a great many people. I wouldn't look to see a single individual as the return of Jesus, the return of Christ. But He would be manifest through many people. There may be claims, of course. I've met a half dozen who claim to be THE Messiah already.

IS THE BIBLE NOW MANIFESTING? I think the Bible somewhat overstates it. It is very difficult to say, because the language of the Bible is seldom like anything we can understand. But just for the moment, not looking at Revelations, let's look at the prophecy that Jesus himself made that he would come in very short order. He said He would return in a generation within a generation. This has gradually been inferred to be after a millennium. The year 1000 has come and gone, so let's try for the year 2000. It may be synchronistic, and it may be prophetic. I think there will be some action coming in around this time.

ARE WE APPROACHING THE MILLENNIUM? Well, we might think so. I have a feeling that a thousand years from now we might look back and say no.

At least, not the way that it has been prophesied. So often the idea is that suddenly everything in the world becomes transformed. I don't think that will happen. I think there will be major shifts, major changes toward a more spiritual base. I do not for one minute believe that every being on this earth will suddenly become a spiritual genius. I think it will take a long time.

I think we will be able to see the shift toward a more spiritual base among the young people very soon. Already, we have seen some signs of it. It seems to me that young people are smarter. They have a higher spiritual I.Q. The search for meaning and a spiritual life are assuming a greater importance. And people are actually doing something about it rather than just talking. They are putting their insights into active practice. It is happening slowly and with setbacks, but the progress is definite.

I look back ten years ago, and there have been tremendous changes. And the past ten years is pointing to greater changes yet to come.
